E-mail Authorization

File #:

I understand that before Harding Law Office can agree to utilize email as a means of communication with me, I must provide them with written authorization. This is due to the fact that e-mail transactions may not be secure, thus creating the risk of accidental disclosure of attorney-client privileged communications, client confidence or secrets contained within.

Having been advised and warned of these risks, I would still like to utilize e-mail as a means of communication. I hereby give this authorization for my attorney(s) to contact me in this manner. I request that they use the following e -mail address for communicating with me:

Finally, I understand that at any time I may revoke this authorization. Such revocation must be made in writing and faxed to Harding Law Office at (515) 287-1442.
